Notes	Charming large open plan cottage on a quiet lane

Open-plan kitchen/ lounge/ diner in this Trinity Holiday cottage

Description

This restored 400 year old granite cottage is open-plan with exposed wooden beams and a minstrels' gallery. Attached to the owners' home, the cottage is surrounded by fields and quiet country lanes. It is close to the island capital of St Helier affording a central location from which to tour the island.

There is an outside area with table and chairs and a large grassed area available for games etc.

The Durrell Wildlife Conservation Centre and the Eric Young Orchid Foundation - both world renowned - are also nearby. The pretty harbour of Bouley Bay, which boasts the islands' scuba diving centre, is less than 10 minutes away.

Babysitting is available by arrangement and payable direct to the owner.

There is a large Waitrose supermarket a short drive from the accommodation.

Children of all ages most welcome.

Sorry, no smoking inside the property.
