Description

Set on the south coast between St. Helier and St. Aubin this two storey, well appointed cottage, is attached to the owner's house and has been created to make full use of its seaside position.

The first floor open plan living/dining/kitchen enjoys sweeping sea views to the south with the beach only 10 yards away. The popular Goose on the Green pub/restaurant is a short stroll away. The seaside Promenade, which passes in front of the cottage, is ideal for evening walks to the leisure harbour of St. Aubin where you will find an impressive selection of restaurants, cafes and bars as well as shops and galleries.

Children of all ages are very welcome.

Sorry, no smoking in the accommodation.
